

LOCAL NOTES

P B Hill was in from camp Alunite Monday.

L. F. J. Hall, of Nelson, was attending court this week.

John Howe, of Searchlight, was a Vegas visitor Monday.

P. H. McLaughlin left for Reno on a business trip Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin have removed from Otis to Vegas to reside.

C. E. McCarthy, of Goodsprings, was in this city during the week.

C. G. Lundholm went to Los Angeles this week on railroad business.

Perry L. Smith is in from Indian Springs attending court this week.

O. C. Ronnow returned Sunday from a short stay in Southern California.

Col. Geo. E. Wheaton, of the Monte Cristo mine, is in Vegas for a few days.

County Recorder Frank Clayton went to Salt Lake city on business Tuesday.

Henry Ingram, of Caliente, was among the attorneys at court this week.

Dr. Wm. P. Ballance, of Searchlight, was attending court in Vegas this week.

Dr. C. A. Jensen, of Searchlight, was a visitor in the county seat during the week.

Wm. E. Orr, the clerk of Lincoln county, was a welcome visitor in Vegas this week.

H. B. Mills, of Los Angeles, a former resident of Logan, was a visitor in Vegas Friday.

James H. Maguire of Searchlight attended court this week as a member of the grand jury.

Clark M. Alvord, the well known Nelson mining man, is in the county seat this week.

O. E. Burdick was a representative of the southern metropolis of Searchlight on the grand jury.

J. A. Shanahan, engineer in charge of the shop work, made a trip to Salt Lake city this week.

Walter M. Brown, the Searchlight mining engineer, is in Vegas on grand jury duty this week.

Frank M. Grace, superintendent of the Las Vegas & Tonopah road, went to Goldfield Tuesday.

W. L. Colton, deputy sheriff at Searchlight, was in attendance on the district court during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lee arrived home Monday evening from a two months trip to Canada and the east.

Frank A. Doherty of Searchlight is attending to the business of the Recorder's office for a few days.

Mrs. Dr. H. L. Hewetson is spending the week in Vegas and the genial doctor is consequently all smiles.

F. R. McNamee, of Caliente, was on hand to attend to legal matters before the district court this week.

George W. Morgan, of Crescent, was in this city as a member of Clark county's first grand jury, this week.

George A. Johnson and bride received the usual noisy demonstration in honor of their marriage, Monday evening.

J. I. Earl, of Bunkerville, had the honor of being appointed foreman of the first grand jury of Clark county.

FOR RENT—Plaza House, 18 rooms furnished, Third Street opposite Court House square. Inquire of J. H. Ladd.

Miss Mary Bishop was quite ill for several days this week, but is now able to resume her duties in the postoffice.

J. F. Evey left for Los Angeles last evening to secure an outfit for his ranch on which the big flow of water was just secured.

Mrs. Dillon, corner of Carson and Second streets gives instruction in piano playing and harmony. Apply afternoons.

George C. Baldwin, of Moapa, a former county commissioner of Lincoln county, served on the grand jury during the week.

James Lane has been obliged to return to Los Angeles for the benefit of his health. Mrs. Lane plans to return in a short time.

Attorney Richard Busted has the distinction of having secured for his client the first decree of divorce in the County of Clark.

C. T. Hecker, the assayer, has reopened his office on First street and is now prepared to do all work in his line promptly and accurately.

Edward I. Cox, of Bunkerville, who was a member of Clark County's first grand jury, was a welcome caller at the Age office during the week.

Mrs. J. M. Heaton and Mrs. W. N. Schuyler will leave this morning for a six weeks visit in Denver, Colo. They will also visit Texas before their return.

J. E. Emerson, mayor of Searchlight, was in Vegas this week as a member of the grand jury, incidentally giving Vegans some information on incorporation.

H. German, of Los Angeles, arrived in Vegas Wednesday to look over the city and country. Mr. German is the owner of acreage property in this vicinity.

W. D. Worrell returned Sunday from a trip of inspection of the schools of Southern California, where he has been gathering ideas for Vegas' new school building.

S. A. Angell, one of the prominent ranchers of Overton, was a welcome caller at the Age office this week. Mr. Angell is a member of Clark county's first grand jury.

Lloyd Smith has closed up his business interests in Pioneer and returned to Vegas Tuesday. He expects to remain here and participate in the good times coming our way.

James A. Foshay, of Los Angeles, will visit Vegas Thursday, Nov. 4th. He will be properly entertained by the Fraternal Brotherhood, of which he is the head, with a banquet, etc.

Our customers are contented. Only the best work by the best workmen. Olive oil shampoo cures dandruff and falling hair. Only at J. D. Kramer's barber shop, First and Tremont streets.

Chas. Lee Horsey, the Pioche attorney, arrived in Vegas Monday evening. Mr. Horsey is kept busy receiving the congratulations of his friends on the arrival of a daughter at his Pioche home on the 21st.

Win. Marschall, the contractor, has been making some extensive improvements on the residence of Peter Buol, on Fifth street, and on the house owned by Mr. Buol on the corner of Third and Carson streets.

The town trustees have just completed a schedule of water rates which they will recommend to the commissioners for incorporation in the franchise Monday. Copies may be seen at several public places including the Age office.

Hon. Frank Williams has returned from Reno, where he took part, as one of the state board of regents, in the ceremonies attending the acceptance of Clarence Mackay's latest gift to the university. He brings back good reports of the state institution.

F. W. Dickle, well known to all who have visited Pioche during the past twenty years, arrived in Vegas Tuesday evening. He was met at the train by a large committee of representative citizens, who presented him with the freedom of the city. Mr. Dickle hopes to so arrange his affairs that he may take up his permanent residence in this hustling community. He is both surprised and delighted at the wonderful growth of our city since his visit here five years ago.